REMEMBER ME

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.

I cannot speak, but I can listen.

I cannot be seen, But I can be heard.

So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea,
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity,

Remember me.

Remember me in your heart:

Your thoughts, and your memories,

Of the times we loved,

The times we cried,

The times we fought,

The times we laughed.

For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.

HONORING THE LIFE OF

Tylic Janders

October 25, 1985 - November 16, 2020

Eulogy

Tylie meant alot to our family, being what we called "our miracle" to have beat the odds and live a love-filled thrity-five years. She was a sense of comfort, a symbol of strength, and a reminder that purity exists in the physical form.

Tylie had a gift of lighting up a space with her laughter. No one could prevent a smile from curling their lips when her angelic chuckles filled the room. She had a child-like presence that compelled one to wrap her in their arms and keep her safe from harm, while also weilding a no nonsense look and a right hook that told you she was just as strong as any other.

As a little girl, when she would blow raspberries at the ceiling and laugh, Mom would say, "She's playing with the angels." Tylie will forever be surrounded by angelic playmates in heaven, alongside all of our passed loved ones who have left us with their memory.

We love and miss you, Tylie.

THANK YOU
